Tom Kreger

Law Firm: Kreger Brodish LLP - Durham, NC

School: NCCU School of Law, Juris Doctor, Hamline University, Bachelor of Arts in Economics

Areas of Law: Personal Injury, Vehicle Accidents, Workplace Injuries, And Other Forms of Civil Litigation

Tidbits: I believe strongly in easy communication between attorneys and clients, high quality legal work done quickly and efficiently, and especially in successful outcomes for our clients. After graduating from college, I worked for four years as a claims adjuster for Progressive Insurance in Raleigh, North Carolina. While at Progressive, I saw how often the lack of good representation harmed people in their fight against large corporations. This experience led me to go to night law school while continuing my work in the insurance field. Upon graduating with highest honors from law school, I worked briefly for Mayer Brown, LLP, a large Chicago-based law firm, doing banking and finance legal work. and personalized help. So in 2010, I started my own law firm in Durham, North Carolina in an effort to use my experience in the insurance and banking fields to support my clients to the best of my ability.

John Andon

Law Firm: Andon Law Firm - Portland, OR

License: OR

School: University of California, Davis, Law School 2002

Areas of Law: Family Law, Estate Planning/Probate, Civil Litigation, Including Personal Injury

Tidbits: I have been an attorney in Oregon since 2005. I also have experience in real estate matters and criminal defense. I handle cases in Multnomah, Washington, and Clackamas counties. As a solo attorney, I handle all matters on a client's case, and do not delegate work to a legal assistant or associate attorney. My goal is to have a limited number of clients who have confidence in me to effectively handle all of their legal issues and give them good advice now and in the future. Each of my clients receives prompt responses to phone calls and emails. I opened my own law firm in 2013. Prior to opening my office, I was a partner at a law firm in the Portland area. I am originally from California, and I graduated from University of California, Davis, Law School in 2002. In my free time, I enjoy doing sports and spending time with my family in Portland.
